

Budget Breakfast

Presented by

Saul Eslake, Economist

The Economic Society of Australia invites you to attend its public Federal Budget Breakfast briefing by Saul Eslake.

Saul will provide an overview of the 2018-19 budget and its fiscal implications.

Saul Eslake worked as an economist in the Australian financial markets for more than 25 years, including as Chief Economist at McIntosh Securities (a stockbroking firm) in the late 1980s, Chief Economist (International) at National Mutual Funds Management in the early 1990s, as Chief Economist at the Australia & New Zealand Banking Group (ANZ) from 1995 to 2009, and as Chief Economist (Australia & New Zealand) for Bank of America Merrill Lynch from 2011 until June 2015. In July 2015 Saul started up his own economics consultancy business, operating out of Hobart, and in April 2016 took up a part-time position as a Vice-Chancellor's Fellow at the University of Tasmania.

Saul is a member of the Australian Parliamentary Budget Office's Expert Advisory Panel; and is on the Advisory Board of Jamieson Coote Bonds, a Melbourne-based specialist bond investment manager.

Breakfast will be a full hot plated breakfast, sliced fruits, danishes, brewed coffee/tea and juice
